REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS UNDER FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 5 U.S 552

Dear sir/mdm,

Under signed attorney Orly Taitz submitted a Quo Warranto complaint to the Attorney General of the United States Eric Holder which was received by the Attorney General twice on 03.17.2009 and on 03.27.2009. After over four years of waiting for a response, under signed attorney never received any response from the Attorney General Holder.

Attorney Taitz is requesting under Freedom of Information Act FOIA 5 US 552 any and all documents generated in response to her Quo Warranto complaint and any evidence of these documents ever being mailed to her.

This is a matter of national importance, aforementioned Quo Warranto provided information and evidence that Barack Hussein Obama does not poses a valid Social Security number, that the number he is using was never assigned to him and that a number of his identification papers represent fabricated documents. In light of this evidence attorney Taitz is requesting her FOIA request to be processed expeditiously.

Respectfully,

Dr. Orly Taitz ESQ

With respect, in absence of such guidance, Relators will proceed to request leave from the Supreme Court to relate information for this Quo Warranto on Mr. Obama to test his title.

Yours Sincerely,

- Major James Cannon Major US Marine Corps, Ret, lifetime subject to recall. Numerous awards, including Bronze Star with Combat V and two Purple Hearts

Requester's right of office grants standing. Relators are affected by actions of Respondent Obama and the actions of the Quo Warranto, and thus have interest above citizens.

Information on Quo Warranto against a Federal Officer is normally related to the Attorney General to the Supreme Court of the United States in U.S. District court of the District of Columbia per DC Code 16-101. However, the Attorney General defends the office of President and is appointed by the President. For the Attorney General to bring Quo Warranto on the President raises an intrinsic conflict of interest. U.S. CONST. art II - 1. Historically, a Special Prosecutor or Independent Counsel was appointed to eliminate self conflicts of interest, e.g., Attorney General Elliot Richardson appointed Archibald Cox as the Watergate Special Prosecutor over issues touching on President Nixon.

The information on Quo Warranto includes action between the United States ex rel. and the State of Hawaii over original birth records of Barack H. Obama II being withheld per Hawaii's privacy laws. Hawaii's laws obstructs the constitutional duties of election officers to validate or evaluate President Obama's qualifications to become President under U.S. CONST. art II - 1 and Amend. XX - 3.

U.S. President Elect, Respondent Obama failed to submit prima facie evidence of his qualifications before January 20, 2009. Election officers failed to challenge, validate or evaluate his qualifications. Relators are affected by President Elect, Respondent Obama failed qualify per U.S. CONST. Amend. XX - 3.
