Dear sir/mdm

On Sunday afternoon on 01.13.2013 I placed a petition on WeThePeople@WhiteHouse.gov. Within hours by Monday morning the petition had 945 signatures of citizens of 49 states and was sure to reach the required 25,000 signatures within 30 days in order to receive a response from the President of the United States according to the rules of the site.

Such an enormous response from the public reflected the importance of the petition and great public concern.

In and around 8:30 in the morning on Monday 01.14.2013 this petition disappeared from the website.

Members of the public who tried to sign it received a response that it violated the policy of the website and was removed for that reason.

When members of the public complained, an e-mail was sent from the site, stating that the petition violated the privacy right.

I submitted a demand to reinstate the petition or provide me with an explanation, what part of the petition violated the privacy right and whose privacy right. I did not receive an answer.

As such I demand information to be provided to me under Freedom of Information Act 5US 552. I demand to know, why specifically my petition, so popular with the public nationwide, was removed. I demand to know, which part of the petition violated the privacy right and whose privacy.

If you refuse to provide the information under 5 U.S.552, I demand information to be provided to me under United States ex rel. Touhy v. Ragen - 340 U.S. 462 (1951)

Respectfully,

/s/ Dr. Orly Taitz, ESQ
