Dear Judge England,

My service to America has spanned 44 years, largely in the Army National Guard. During this span of time I also spent 8 months in Vietnam, 2 months in the Persian Gulf, and 3 months in Operation Desert Storm as a DOD Civilian assigned to combat units. I took an oath to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic and though retired, I remain faithful to that oath.

I have reviewed the pleadings in Grinols et al v Electoral College, U.S. Congress, Barack Obama 12-cv- 02997 before Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California. Also I have reviewed a large number of other documents and affidavits bearing on the issue of Mr. Obama's eligibility to occupy the Oval Office. It appears to me that the Congress and the Judiciary have ignored the evidence presented in this case which is considerable and significant. The question as to whether the Constitution and rule of law have been violated has not been answered. This question has been hanging fire far too long. The American people deserve a definitive answer.

The simple question is, if Mr. Obama has nothing to hide then why will he not unseal those documents which could validate his eligibility for office, as others before him have done?

Judge England, I urge you to allow the case to proceed on the merits and allow the jury to arrive at a verdict on the aforementioned issues.

Sincerely,
