Dear sir/mdm

According to the 2011 report of the Chief FOIA officer of the SSA usually petitioners receive responses to their FOIA requests for information within 20 days. Attached FOIA request and checks were submitted to SSA 33 days ago by Certified mail. No response was received.

Please, consider this letter to be a final request for information under FOIA. If information is not provided within 20 days, petitioner will consider lack of response as a final denial of information and will seek legal action.
