COMPLAINT

DISCRIMINATION, VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS

Recently Hon. Robert N Spencer of this court ruled against a private individual, a baker, Jack Phillips, and his small bakery, Masterpiece Cake Shop, ordering this private individual to bake wedding cakes for Gay couples or face sanctions and penalties in spite of the fact that:

1. Alleged Discrimination was not by the state or federal government, but by a private individual.

2. Respondent Jack Phillips advised Judge Spencer that compelling Mr. Phillips to bake wedding cakes for gay couples goes against his religious beliefs and represents violation of his First Amendment Freedom of Religion and Freedom of Speech rights.

3. Gay marriages are not legal in Colorado and such forced compulsion to perform not only representing Involuntary Servitude and in violation of First Amendment rights, but also forced Mr. Phillips to violate existing Colorado law which bans gay marriage.

4. Colorado Administrative Court Judge Robert N. Spencer relied in his decision on cases that have nothing to do with the controversy. Among such cases and examples were invalidation of DOMA, which is a government action and removal of tax exempt status of Brigham Young university, whereby tax exempt status represents a governmental action. Jack Phillips and his little bakery is not a governmental entity and he does not enjoy a tax exempt status.

Currently a reverse situation is taking place and it is as follows:

1. Citizens of Colorado have been enjoying "Duck Dynasty" show on A and E Network, which is headquartered in New York, 235 E. 45th str. New York, New York, 10017, but is doing business in the state of Colorado via cable networks.

2. Plaintiff herein, Attorney Orly Taitz, is a president of a not for profit foundation, "Defend our Freedoms Foundation", which has multiple members in the state of Colorado.

3. Attorney Orly Taitz is filing this administrative complaint not as an attorney, but as a President of a foundation.

4. Recently star of Duck Dynasty show, Phil Robertson, gave an interview, where he stated that he is a heterosexual, he prefers women to men, he is a born again Christian and that based on his Christian faith he believes that homosexual lifestyle is a sin.

5. A& E network suspended Mr. Robertson from the show indefinitely, citing those statements. Mr. Robertson was deprived of his livelihood and thousands of fans, citizens of Colorado, were deprived of ability to watch Mr. Robertson in his "Duck Dynasty" show.

6. Citizens of Colorado expect the Administrative Court of the State of Colorado not to violate the 14th amendment Equal protection clause and not to deprive the citizens of their civil rights under the color of authority per 42 US 1983.

As such plaintiff is seeking the following redress o her grievance from the Chief judge of the administrative court:

a. Either revoke/rescind/reverse prior decision by Judge Robert N. Spencer and Masterpiece Cake shop, finding that individuals and small businesses not using governmental funds and not enjoying non-profit status reserve the right to refuse business to anyone. Or alternatively:

b. Find that A and E Network is engaged in discrimination against heterosexuals in favor of homosexuals, engaged in discrimination of religious people, particularly Christians, in favor of godless atheists and order A-E cease and desist such discrimination and stop suspension of Phil Robertson from the Duck Dynasty show, so that heterosexuals and religious citizens of the state of Colorado will not be deprived of the show that they used to enjoy or face penalties.

If proper action is not taken and redress of this grievance is not provided, a number of citizens of the state of Colorado might have to bring a legal action against the Administrative Court of the State of Colorado itself for ACTUAL GOVERNMENT ACTION by the court itself under the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and under 42 U.S. 1983 in discriminating against heterosexuals in favor of homosexuals and for discrimination against religious individuals in favor of godless atheists and depriving heterosexuals and religious individuals of their civil rights under the color of authority.

Respectfully,

Dr. Orly Taitz ESQ

President of Defend Our Freedoms Foundation
