Trump's policies will save this country, will protect all Americans, including Muslim-Americans. Hillary announced that she will bring 65,000 Syrians after ISIS announced that they will embed their terrorists in their midst. Hillary's actions endanger all of us and will cause more 9/11s. Trump said that he will not bring any of them and will provide humanitarian aid for them in the region. Trump's policies make sense. Hillary's policies represent idiocy at best and treason at worst. Additionally, Clinton is a globalist, will continue the globalist free trade deals and open border policies, which rob millions of Americans of their jobs. Trump announced that he will stop those free deals and will stop open border policies. For these 2 reasons every American, who has at least a grain of brain in his head, should vote Trump for president.
